PROFILE

I'm a marketing and creative executive who treats design as a business tool first. I build brands, products and campaigns that look considered — and perform measurably.

I enjoy solving business problems through design rather than simply making attractive graphics — starting from the goal, the audience and the numbers, then crafting until every detail earns its place.

EXPERIENCE

Marketing & Creative Executive — Ashwheelz

Sales & Marketing · Lahore · Present

Talal Othman bin Saleh Al Hamdan General Cont. Co.

Leading brand presence, creative output and digital marketing across every channel — from content calendars and campaigns to corporate identity, merchandise and the internal tools that keep teams moving.

- Own every social channel end to end — planning, production, publishing and performance reporting.
- Designed and shipped a URL-based customer feedback system with a searchable admin dashboard and one-click Excel export.
- Built the company portfolio used in proposals, tenders and client pitches.
